

106TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. RES. 547

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives with respect to the peace process in Northern Ireland.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 11, 2000

Mr. NEAL of Massachusetts (for himself, Mr. GILMAN, Mr. GEJDENSON, Mr. KING, Mr. CROWLEY, Mr. WALSH, Mr. MENDENDEZ, Mr. SMITH of New Jersey, Mr. ACKERMAN, and Mr. LAZIO) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives with respect to the peace process in Northern Ireland.

Whereas the April 10, 1998, Good Friday Agreement established a framework for the peaceful settlement of the conflict in Northern Ireland;

Whereas the Good Friday Agreement stated that it provided “the opportunity for a new beginning to policing in Northern Ireland with a police service capable of attracting and sustaining support from the community as a whole”;

Whereas the Good Friday Agreement provided for the establishment of an Independent Commission on Policing to make “recommendations for future policing arrangements in Northern Ireland including means of encouraging widespread community support for these arrangements”;

Whereas the Independent Commission on Policing, led by Sir Christopher Patten, concluded its work on September 9, 1999, and proposed 175 recommendations in its final report to ensure a new beginning to policing, consistent with the requirements in the Good Friday Agreement;

Whereas the Patten report explicitly “warned in the strongest terms against cherry-picking from this report or trying to implement some major elements of it in isolation from others”;

Whereas section 405 of the Admiral James W. Nance and Meg Donovan Foreign Relations Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 2000 and 2001 (as contained in H.R. 3427, as enacted by section 1000(a)(7) of Public Law 106–113, and as contained in appendix G to such Public Law) requires President Clinton to certify, among other things, that the Governments of the United Kingdom and Ireland are committed to assisting in the full implementation of the recommendations contained in the Patten Commission report issued on September 9, 1999 before the Federal Bureau of Investigation or any other Federal law enforcement agency can provide training for the Royal Ulster Constabulary;

Whereas a May 5, 2000, joint letter by the British Prime Minister and the Irish Prime Minister stated that “legislation to implement the Patten report will, subject to Parliament, be enacted by November 2000”;

Whereas on May 16, 2000, the British Government published the proposed Police (Northern Ireland) bill, which purports to implement in law the Patten report;

Whereas many of the signatories to the Good Friday Agreement have stated that the draft bill does not live up to the letter or spirit of the Patten report and dilutes or does not implement many key recommendations of the Patten Commission;

Whereas Northern Ireland's main nationalist parties have indicated that they will not participate or encourage participation in the new policing structures unless the Patten report is fully implemented; and

Whereas on June 15, 2000, British Secretary of State for Northern Ireland Peter Mandelson said, "I remain absolutely determined to implement the Patten recommendations and to achieve the effective and representative policing service, accepted in every part of Northern Ireland, that his report aimed to secure": Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) commends the parties for progress to date
3 in implementing all aspects of the Good Friday
4 Agreement and urges them to move expeditiously to 5 complete the implementation;

6 (2) believes that the full and speedy implemen-
7 tation of the recommendations of the Independent
8 Commission on Policing for Northern Ireland holds
9 the promise of ensuring that the police service in
10 Northern Ireland will gain the support of both na-
11 tionalists and unionists and that "policing structures
12 and arrangements are such that the police service is 13 fair and impartial, free from partisan political con-

1 trol, accountable...to the community it serves, rep-
2 resentative of the society that it polices...[and]
3 complies with human rights norms”, as mandated by 4 the Good Friday Agreement; and

5 (3) calls upon the British Government to fully
6 and faithfully implement the recommendations con-
7 tained in the September 9, 1999, Patten Commis-
8 sion report on policing.
